Letter of Agreement Web Sales

Due to a recent influx in unauthorized internet-based reselling of our product, we have implemented this letter of agreement to protect ourselves from further misconduct. Let it be known that any web sales MUST be explicitly approved, in writing, by Charlotte's Web, Inc. prior to any products being put up for sale online. Additionally, all affiliated parties (i.e. retailers, distributors, independent contractors, etc...) are strictly forbidden from utilizing online merchants to sell our product. These merchants include, but are not limited to; eBay, Amazon, and Craigslist. Should it come to light that an affiliated party has placed our product(s) online without prior written approval, and/or has utilized an online merchant to distribute our product, their relationship with Charlotte's Web, Inc. will be subject to nullification, as well as potential legal action taken against said party. Please acknowledge your understanding of this agreement by signing below.
